Imperial TKS Control Application

Imperial TKS control application provides real-time management with:

- two-way communication with the server
- one-way communication with production line
- multiple timers
- etc.

The design of the application is according to the control specifications of Imperial Tobacco TKS.

Control application provides fast and easy navigation for the controllers through the database of brands of Imperial Tobacco.

The application enables graphics and sound notification, in case the control is not performed.